

JAL becomes latest CPCS customer

Cathay Pacific Catering Services (CPCS) became Japan Airlines' inflight catering supplier for flights out of Hong Kong last month, bringing the caterer's customer portfolio to 43 – the highest in its 48-year history.

This is the first time for CPCS to serve two top Japanese carriers, All Nippon Airways and Japan Airlines, boosting the economies of scale and expertise in its Japanese kitchen.

Pictured celebrating the partnership are (left to right) Philip Tung, Andy Wong and Jenny Lam from CPCS, and Shigeki Suzuki, Thomas Woo and Futoshi Nakahara from JAL.

